

Any immigration reform proposal must secure our borders, enforce our immigration laws, and not offer a path to citizenship for those who violated our laws.